NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!
AT

I MAKE MY BOW AGAIN TO MY NUMEROUS friends and patrons, with a house full of goods and still they come.

Why, just look, the streets filled with drays all loaded with new Good's

FOR CREECH'S.

Just received, 5 CASES OF DRY GOODS, containing a large and varied assortment; and when you talk about Dress Goods, and when you think of new styles and speak of Goods at the right prices, why, bear in mind that they are here and now opened at Creech's. COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

CALICOES, CALICOES.

I will sell you Calicoes at 5 cts a per yard; wont you look at them at 10 cents? and cant you afford to buy them at 12½.

Goods for Men's and Boy's Wear.

Don't you know that I keep the best assortment in the City? You that do not know it, come and look at them and to you that do know come right along and buy what you want. I have got some for the boy's, plenty for the youth's. A fine supply for the young men and enough to keep the old gentlemen warm, so why not spend a few moments at Creech's and satisfy yourselves?

There the remote Bermudas ride
In the Ocean's bosom unespied;
From a small boat that rowed a-long
The listning winds received the song.
COME TO CREECH'S.

Cloaks and Shawls, Cloaks and Shawls.

Did I say Cloaks and Shawls? That is just what I mean. Why I will sell them to you for $2.00! Do you want them cheaper? same quality. Cant find them! Do you want them finer? I am just the man that has them. 5, 7, 8, 10, 12, 15, 20, 2 and 30 dollars. Do you want them finer still? Just say so, and I am the man to order them.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

Just received 100 Cases for Ladies, Misses, Boys and Children; so just put that naked foot into a boot or shoe, for it will soon be cold weather, and my friend, I see your boots a wearing out, and your shoes have a hole in them, so you had just as well come to Creech's and buy a new pair. They look better and fit better, any way; they keep your feet dry and preserve your health.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

All right; Prices right; styles right; and did you know that Creech's is the place to buy hats right? Come and look.

Ladies' and Misses' trimmed and untrimmed Bonnets; Would you not go well to spare a few moments and come and look at them?

I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for the patronage I have received for the last 20 years at your hands and I hope, by strict attention to business representing goods as they are and in every instance giving you the worth of your money, to continue to share a liberal portion of your patronage.

A. CREECH.

REGENERATION OF THE STATE.

No one could look upon the simple yet grand sight to be witnessed on our Fair Grounds every day this week, and doubt for a moment the political and material regeneration of the State. War is the greatest curse to any country. It brings upon it the greatest calamities and dries up the very sources of its prosperity.

The propagation of Republican principles by the sword rather than by moral force, is the next greatest calamity that can afflict a country. A stranger to our history would never have thought that we were just emerging from a four years war and a five years struggle against the oppression of a faction, seeking by physical instead of moral force to compel the adoption of their political sentiments.

The moral, political, agricultural and material interests of the State can no longer be impeded by carpet-baggers and native political jobbers, who have for four years sought to demoralize the labor of the country, by calling it from its natural channel and forcing it to flow in the political channel for their personal agrandizement.

In the grand display of pretty women, hearty, innocent children, stout men, fast horses and game chickens, we could but silently rejoice in the happy reflection, that Littlefield, Ladin, John T. Deweese and such rogues as had forced themselves and their political sentiments upon us by the sword, were not to be found on the Fair Ground. That this sentiment may not be construed into "disloyalty and hatred to the government," we desire to express our gratification at seeing a number of Northern men and foreigners on the Fair Ground, most heartily received and joyously welcomed by every one.

Mr. Davis of Alamance, late of Pennsylvania, gave us with his big plow and Pennsylvania horses, a good specimen of Pennsylvania plowing. Such men as Mr. Davis, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Froelich, the Linceses, the Shellys and others, will do more to advance the prosperity of the State, than a myriad of such immigrants as Tourgee, Lafl n, Abbott, Ashley, Marilin, Kirk and Bergen.

"ARREST HIM ALIVE."

We believe that Gov. Holden wrote or suggested to Bergen the order which he gave to arrest us "alive." We believe so, because we have in the Governor's own hand writing the return which Kirk made upon the writ issued by Judge Pearson.

No man not contemplating murder would put the word "alive" in the order of arrest. The man who had the order to take us "alive," had orders to shoot. One of them told us so, and we believed him.

When Gov. Holden failed in the counties of Caswell and Alamance, to get up civil commotion and a little blood letting by the arrest of the best men in those two counties, he then turned his attention to Orange.—He sent them expecting resistance. He sent them on a day when he knew there would be a crowd of our friends in the streets of Hillsboro. He sent only a handful of men to increase the chances of resistance. He failed to get it. The pit he dug for his enemy, he fell into.

He shall be indicted for sending his cut-throats to Orange, on a mission of murder. He has not the contemptible excuse for arresting in Orange, which the Shoffner bill gave him in Caswell and Alamance.

COTTON CROP.

The cotton crop in this State will not be more than one half what was expected, when planted. This, together with the reduced prices, is very discouraging to our cotton planters, and may probably effect among them a change of policy, which sound reason and reflection ought long since to have effected. We repeat, what we have often suggested, that it is unsafe and the hazard is too great, for any people to rely solely upon the product of any one article, no matter how commanding in the market that one article may be. Disaster and ruin, arising from the seasons or other causes, will come at least once in a while, and when they do come, the labor of years is destroyed. Such a course is always followed by scarcity and high prices of every other article which they have failed to produce, requiring a heavy advance upon the one crop to meet the deficit in other articles of prime necessity.

We regret that we are not prepared to suggest at the present time, the safe course in regard to the sale of the crop now being picked. If cotton commanded a living price we should say sell, or if we knew that the crop in the South would fall below 3,000,000 bales, we should advise them to hold on till spring. In any event, no doubt the policy of forcing the crop upon the market, is wrong and hazardous.

A private letter from the Hon. A. H. Stephens represents him to very deplorable health, he being feeble and unable to leave his room.

A VOICE FROM YADKIN.

It is well that those who are immediately connected with the practical workings of a party or of a legislative body, should be cautious in their movements and careful never to commit themselves to a wrong policy. We have great confidence in the sober sense and sound judgment of the people, more so, than in professional politicians, and hence we have said that we have never known a more general desire on the part of the people for any measure involving such moment, as the call of a Convention to amend our present Constitution, and the impeachment of those officers who have shown themselves unworthy of confidence.

"Yadkin" it will be seen expresses himself decidedly upon these points, and we do not doubt if these questions were left to the common sense and sober judgment of the people, that their views would be more nearly a unity than ordinarily occurs upon any subject. A cursory glance at the Constitution and a consideration of the history of the State the two past years, would settle the question at once, the Constitution must be amended and wicked officers must be suppressed. Believing this, we shall urge them as necessary and proper.

GEN. LEE.

The universal demonstrations of sorrow at the death of our late honored chieftain, are not ephemeral exhibitions as a matter of course, drawn forth from the people by the ordinary attractions which a great leader presents, but are the spontaneous exhibitions of esteem and veneration, which the solid and strongly marked character of such a man is sure to inspire. He was a model man, and one of the few who has fallen in modern times, whose history should be traced by a master pen, for the benefit of the rising and of future generations. There is a world of study in the life and character of Robert Edmund Lee, which should be stamped indelibly upon the minds of the children of this and of future generations. But whose pen is equal to the task?

We fear in this sinister, money-seeking age, many a word-painter and sensational book-maker, will push their ill-judged histories of Gen. Lee upon the public at once, before the right man can be obtained to do the work. We hope that those who ought to move in the matter, will do so at once, in order to forestall any effort which may be made by improper parties from issuing such books as may sell, but will be of no permanent value.

RILEY COULD NOT SLEEP.

When our affidavit was presented to Judge Riley Cannon for the arrest of Holden, His Honor did not sleep on it, as did Webster on Haynes' speech. He stated the next morning that he had not slept at all, and he was in great trouble as to what he should do. He was afraid it was one of "Jo Turner's traps to catch him." We are told, he even consulted with the Doctors as to what he should do. A friend told him if he arrested the Governor it would ruin him; if he did not arrest him it would ruin him. We are sorry to have disturbed Riley's sleep. "Oh nature's gentle nurse what has" Riley "done to affright thee from his couch."

CONSERVATIVES OF THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

The death of the late Hon. Robert B Gilliam, of Granville, forces upon the people of the fourth Congressional District, the duty of electing another member to fill the vacancy, (occasioned by the resignation of Deweese to avoid expulsion) in the next House of Representatives,

We presume it will be entirely satisfactory to the people of the District, if the President of the late Franklinton Conservative Convention, shall convene that body at an early day to nominate a candidate.

WHAT'S THE MATTER!—The Radical party is so demoralized in New Hanover County, that it requires the intervention of Senator Abbott to straighten it. We observe that he calls a Convention of his party to meet in Wilmington from every township in the county, to elect delegates to attend the Convention of the Senatorial District. He alleges that the object of the Convention is to re organize the party. That party is an adept at reconstruction and re-organization, but unfortunately is composed of such bad material it is all the time falling to pieces itself. We hope the Conservatives of New Hanover will keep wide awake. Abbott seems not to know that the carpet baggers reign is at an end in North Carolina.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Complete returns of the late election in Pennsylvania, show a gain of five Democratic members of Congress and a large gain in the popular vote. The Standard should bring out its roosters.

ANOTHER INCIDENT IN GEN. LEE'S LIFE. Hon. H. W. Hilliard, ex member of the Federal Congress, made a speech in Augusta, Ga., at the meeting there held to do honor to the memory of Gen. Lee, in which he said:

"An offer, originating in Georgia, and I believe in this very city, was made to him to place an immense sum of money at his disposal if he would consent to reside in the city of New York and represent southern commerce. Millions would have flowed to him. But he declined. He said: 'No: I am grateful, but I have a self imposed task, which I must accomplish. I have led the young men of the South in battle; I have seen many of them fall under my standard. I shall devote my life now to training young men to do their duty in life.'"

ELECTIONS NEXT MONTH.—In November there will be elections in fifteen States, namely: November 7, (being the first Monday of the month,) Arkansas and Louisiana. November 8, (being the first Tuesday after the first Monday,) Alabama, Florida, Illinois, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusettts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New York, New Jersey, Wisconsin.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Our dumb Animals" is the title of a paper which comes to us from Boston. These Massachusetts humanitarians shed tears over a turtle on its back, and would chloroform a bedbug before crushing it, but at the same time would skin a live man without compunction in the way of business.

LETTER FROM YADKIN.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.:—Dear Sir:—As many of the counties in the State are giving publicity to their feelings through the columns of your valuable paper, and as Yadkin scarcely ever gives utterance to her thoughts, or ever exhibits her feelings in any other way than at the ballot box, I have concluded to write a few lines, in order to add our mite, to the general pile already heaped up from different portions of the State.

We have no new ideas to advance, no new methods devised of relieving the State of the many difficulties and distresses with which she is encompassed; but merely wish to show that we too feel, and feel deeply, the wrongs that have been inflicted upon us by Radical misrule and Executive corruption. We wish to bear witness in common with our sister counties that we have been oppressed and down trodden and overwhelmed by the rulers of the State. It is a sad tale that we tell and does not differ from the one often told in your columns. We can tell of suffering and poverty, of taxation beyond endurance, of men driven to despair on account of the financial condition of the State. Yadkin has always been a quiet and orderly county. When secession was first advocated she clung with filial affection to the old flag, and when at last the State was carried out of the Union by Holden, Judge Thomas, Wm. A. Smith, and others, we were grieved, but felt that no part of the blood of our neighbors could be imputed to us.

After the war was over, true to our natural instincts, we gladly returned to the family of States, trusting that with a prudent Executive, with an economical Legislature and peaceful measures, we could retrench and again enjoy the blessings that had always been found under the old flag. We accepted the terms offered by Holden, and he received as large a vote as was ever polled in the county.

Now, has he given us all he promised? We asked not for riches and great wealth, we asked not for power and unreasonable favors,—we simply asked what the Great Creator has vouchsafed to all mortals,—peace, quiet, and a reasonable amount of prosperity. As I said, we accepted Holden's terms, and to-day the result is before us. A broken Constitution and violated laws, ignorance on the increase for want of schools, poverty on all sides, suffering everywhere, society upturned and uncertain, and all on account of misrule. I tell you sir, it is fearful to contemplate what direful effects it is within the power of man to accomplish; and when I look around me and see that all which was once so joyous and prosperous is now turned into gloom and despair, I would fain turn away in disgust. We have been betrayed by those who professed to be our best friends, and are now feeling the force of their arrogance and ignorance. When I see the sad faces and down cast countenances of our farmers and citizens generally, and reflect that it is generally the case all over the State, the thought naturally suggests itself what a fearful record has that man Holden made for himself; and I sometimes think that if the throne of Heaven is ever sorrowful, if ever the sounds of happiness cease and the harps of angels hang in sorrow by their sides, it is when the guardian angel of our dear old State wings its way into the Holy presence and reports that the land once so favored by Providence, is in this condition of grief and sorrow.

But for all this we bear Gov. Holden no malice. He can come into any portion of our county and save the frightful spectres of his own wicked imagination, nothing would ever disturb him.

We have none of these famous frights the Ku Klux to molest or make him afraid: and if he can so choke and control his feelings when he passes the graves of those who fell in the war, by his secession policy, we can promise him a comparatively pleasant trip through our county.

All we desire, and all we demand is his impeachment and removal from office. We claim it as a right, as a forfeiture of his trust and as a surety of his never oppressing us again. I have never known the people so unanimous on any one question. Those who have been his most ardent supporters are now clamoring for his impeachment and removal, and a riddance from all his tribe of associates and accomplices. And there is another question upon which we are all agreed. A Convention of the people, filled with men of understanding and honesty, both rarely seen of late, in our law-making assemblies, is earnestly wished for. We desire a speedy return to our old method of County and Superior Courts, as economy and prudence both require, and a Constitution procured to suit the people, regulated of course by the changed condition of the colored population. And then we wish some provision made for the education of the young. There are many young men now growing up in ignorance who would make intelligent and useful citizens, if properly educated. While there are many reforms and innovations necessary for our prosperity, this I conceive to be the most important. Especially is it necessary to a successful Republican form of government, where all the laws and all the measures of government originate and are adopted by the people. And just as education in this country advances, so will the happiness and prosperity of the people increase. But there is one thing concerning which great caution will be requisite, or our efforts will not be crowned with success. I mean in reference to the system of an elective judiciary. I fear this is an evil which will bear heavier upon us than most people imagine, and from which we cannot be so easily delivered. For there are few instances in which the people have ever surrendered a liberty once accorded to them. It is the nature of man to desire the most privileges and liberties that he can secure, and when once gained they guard them with jealousy and cling to them with great tenacity. Great caution will therefore be necessary in this matter, to convince the people of the evils and dangers of this form of choosing our Judges.

As regards the choice of a Senator, we are willing to trust that entirely to the wisdom and prudence of the Legislature, trusting that they will not forget those who have labored hardest for our deliverance from our once fearful condition.

But I cannot close without returning our thanks for your triumphant delivery of the State from the rule of Radicalism, and expressing the hope that it will be many a day before you will be compelled again to deal with so corrupt a parcel of men.

These are the general impressions, Mr. Editor, which I have ventured to communicate, and which I trust will serve to evince our interest in the matters which are being transacted in our State. Though cut off from speedy and comfortable connection with the news portion of the State, having never been favored with the Railroad promised us by our Radical rulers, we watch with interest and anxiety the movements and "signs of the times," and when the moment for action arises, you will always find Yadkin ready to aid in advancing the prosperity of the State.

Respectfully yours,
Oct. 17, 1870. YADKIN.

Experience in Virginia has developed the fact that it takes a negro jurymaq exactly four minutes to go in sleep after he has taken his seat in the box. So says the Louisville Courier Journal.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1870.

☞ Jesse N. Ramsey, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW STORE.—The new store just completed by J. R. Williams, Esq., we learn will be occupied by S. D. Harrison about the 1st prox. Who will occupy the corner his present stand, we have not heard.

PETERSBURG FAIR.—In our notice on yesterday of the Petersburg Fair, it was erroneously stated that it began on Monday the 28th inst. It should have been the 25th inst.

It will be seen that W. H. Gerkin, General Agent of the North Carolina Beneficial Association has removed his office.

CLUBS.—We are under obligations to our friends Messrs. R. B. Clark and D. J. Hardin of Laurinburg, for a club of 23 subscribers to the SENTINEL, with the cash. Our friends are aiding us handsomely in this respect. We are not yet "done taking in." Send on the clubs.

OMISSION.—In our last issue in noticing the parade of the Fire Brigade, we, by some means, omitted to mention the Hook and Ladder Company. This error rests not with "ye Local," but with the locum tenens, who should have been more careful in seeing that the copy was followed strictly.

REDUCTION IN FREIGHTS.—Those enterprising Commission Merchants and Agents of Newbern, N. C., Messrs. Whitford, Dill & Co., have two fine steamers of the "Murray Line," running regularly from Newbern to New York, and they have reduced the freights considerably.

GOV. GRAHAM'S ADDRESS.

We wish we had time and space to give an expression of our opinion of this admirable address. The Governor was introduced to the immense audience at 11½ o'clock by Hon. Wm. H. Battle in a brief but very appropriate manner, when he proceeded to the discharge of the duty assigned him by the Bar of Rockingham Court, and by the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society, of which Chief Justice Ruffin was President at the time of his death. The address was not so much a eulogy, as a memorial of the great and good man whose life and character were commemorated. For good taste, sound judgment and high literary excellence, it was unsurpassed by any similar performance. Having heard the address on the life and character of the late Judge Badger by the same speaker, it occurred to us that Gov. Graham has a very remarkable talent for such services, and as we cast our eyes on several venerable gentlemen—his auditors, we could not but think how fortunate for them it will be to have such a man to pronounce their funeral oration.

The character of Judge Ruffin was portrayed throughout his whole life; in his boyhood at school in Warrenton, during his collegiate course at Nassau Hall, while a student at law in Petersburg and as a law Judge and agriculturalist. In every period of life, the same character of energy and indomitable perseverance was exhibited.

The address is valuable in a high degree for the biographical sketches of Judge Ruffin's contemporaries, many of whom were men of mark. It stirs one's blood to recall the honored names of such men as Murphy, Henderson, Taylor, Seavin, Gaston, Nash, and others of high renown. "There were giants in those days."

CLOSED.—The Fair closed yesterday and it was the most agreeable and pleasant day of the Fair.

At 10 o'clock the trotting match which was interrupted by the storm of Thursday was resumed. The entries were Lee's Brown Dick and Harvey's Express, best three in five, mile heats, and was won by Express in three straight heats.

Next, a trotting match between Haywood's Fannie Davis and a horse called Tom, entered and driven by Paxson, best two in three, mile heats—won by Fannie in two straight heats.

At one o'clock a pacing race came off, best two in three mile heats—entries George W. Wynne's Kuklux, J. D. Suggs' Hunter and J. S. Bryan's Fannie—won by Kuklux in two straight heats, Mr. Bryant withdrawing his mare after the first round in consequence of having to take her up to prevent running over a lady, thereby being distanced.

At three o'clock the main trotting match of the Fair came off—the contest for the citizens purse of $500—contestants, Paxson's Twist, Wagoman's Loafer and Johnston's Pachen. 1st, round given to Loafer, time 2.37; 2nd, 3rd and 4th to Twist, time, 2.40, 2.39, 2.42.

This closed the trial of speed for the day and the exercises of the Fair. May our next be altogether as successful and abundantly more so.

We have a good deal to say about it, which we will say hereafter.

PANIC-STRUCK BEAUTY.—It is a terrible shock to a charming woman—indeed, to any woman, to find that her teeth are "beginning to go." Never will any human being who uses the fragrant SOZODONT, make that discovery.

A large number of people attended the meeting of the Stockholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford R. R., in Wilmington.

THE FAIR—FOURTH DAY.

We give a very cursory notice to those parts of the exhibition not heretofore alluded to. Our limits have been insufficient for so lengthy a notice as we would like to give.

MINERAL HALL.

In this department are numerous specimens of minerals from every part of the State—marl from the east, coal from the centre and lime, coal, copper, iron, sandstone and various others from the west.—In this Hall also were specimens of the medicinal herbs found in the mountainous regions of the West, of which were eighty specimens of roots, leaves, bark and seeds by G. W. & S. F. Harper of Lenoir, Caldwell county, and 48 by M. V. Moore of the same place.

We cannot enumerate the articles in this hall, but an inspection of them was sufficient to convince any one of the rich and varied mineral productions that are to be found in our State. In this Hall also, were samples of the Navassa Guano, manufactured at Wilmington, and the Fish Guano sold by Coward & Harris of Norfolk, a ton of each of which was offered as premiums at the Fair.

In referring to this Hall, we feel it but just to say a word in praise of young Mr. Rogers of this City, who had charge of it. He was indefatigable in bringing the articles in his charge to the notice of every visitor,—a thing more important in this than any other department.

MANUFACTURERS.

In addition to what we have heretofore mentioned, as to the hall of arts, we may mention:

Buggies by Morgan & Frazer of Smithfield; ditto, by Wrenn of Norfolk, very fine, and two open and one top buggy, by N. S. Harp of Raleigh, the latter of which cannot be exceeded for style, workmanship and finish, in or out of the State; two spring wagons put up by the deaf and dumb workmen at the State D. & D. Institution, under the foremanship of Mr. Gorman, shoes, made at the same institution by the deaf and dumb pupils instructed by Mr. Watson.—

One set buggy harness, one wagon, and one cart do., and a very fine saddle by Mr. Wm. B. Hutchings, Raleigh; one very fine saddle by Beattie & Hill of Concord, and a pair of wagon harness by H. L. Shore of Salem. By Plummer, Young & Co. of Petersburg, a beautiful assortment of cutlery, hardware &c., Rifles by Wm. Lamb of Guilford; brogan shoes by J. A. Lesch & Co. of Thomasville, boots and ladies' gaiters by the deaf and dumb pupils of D. & D., Institute; patent leather boots and ladies gaiters by Ellen & Mowatt of Raleigh; stitched and channel boots of superior quality by D. C. Murray of Raleigh; wooden table-ware by Charles F. Burgess of Raleigh, rosewood, oak and pine; Grape mill by Thos. B. Hill of Kernersville; a toy engine by Master David Justice and one by Master Atlas Beaver, both boys of this city.

FLORAL HALL.

We have been trying all this week to prepare to do justice to this part of our exhibition, but now are ready to acknowledge our utter inability to do the subject justice. The many pretty and useful things here spread before the eyes of visitors, like the many beautiful forms and faces of those who contributed to this part of the exhibition, were so much like the fragments of a shivered mirror, reflecting thousands of images of dazzling beauty, that we do not know where to begin or when to leave off. We can only mention a few of the more unique and striking articles in this hall.

A fruit piece by Miss Sophia Partridge, a large collection of flowers and flowering shrubs, C. B. Denson of Pittsboro', a splendid collection of bead work and other ornamental and useful articles, contributed by the Church Aid Society of Salem; beautiful vases of wax work, by Mrs. Blake, Miss Sue Pescud and others whose names we did not learn, beautiful specimens of embroidery and painting by Miss Mollie Nixon; fancy wool, very much resembling Berlin, by Mrs. Hege of Forsyth, (she and her husband had about 40 articles on exhibition;) wax work and other fancy work, by Mrs. Brown of Salisbury, fancy clock frame, made with a penknife by Mr. Paul Lincke of Raleigh; a burr basket by a little girl of Asheville, six years old; pianos of excellent tone and finish by Mr. Nash of Newbern and Mr. Pirsson of Raleigh; a wedding dress, made and worn in 1800, by Mrs. Crenshaw of Wake, (it is not exactly in the fashion of the present day;) two fine wax fruit pieces, contributor not known; some very pretty artificial flowers made by a blind girl; lot of ladies hats, by Mrs Hester of Raleigh; a lot of the same by Mrs. Young and Mrs. Taylor of Raleigh; feather flowers, most beautiful, by Miss Kate Mebane of Greensboro'; hair wreath by Miss Bettie Williams of Raleigh aged 13 years; beautiful hair wreath by Mrs. Watson of Granville, (she and her husband contributed largely to the Fair in almost every department;) a large collection of photographs from Watson's gallery and some very excellent ones from Shelburn's gallery, both of Raleigh; an embroidered silk skirt and opera cloak, by Mrs. Lucas, 73 years old, (can't be beat in its line;) lot of perfumes manufactured by Berry of Newbern; a "cuckoo" clock by Phil. Thiem, and one by some one else whose name we did not learn; a fine collection of white counterpanes, quilts, tidies, embroidery &c., too tedious to enumerate, by many of our industrious housewives.—One pretty bed quilt by Miss Georgia Emery, five years old, of Goldsboro; a "shoo fly" counterpane by Mrs. Peter Doub of Greensboro; a bed quilt, very pretty, cut made and quilted by Warrick Rhue, a colored man, of Johnston; a quilt composed of six different colors, by a blind girl; beautiful dried apples by McRory of Hillsboro'; dried cherries, plums, whortleberries and other fruits by Mr. Hege of Lexington, who had the largest collection of farm products, &c., on exhibition; glass melon citron by Miss Sophia Partridge; canned peaches, Mrs. Wilson; apple jelly, Miss Mollie Nixon; catsup, Mrs. Wilson; honey comb, Hunter & Shultz; jelly by Mrs. Brown of Salisbury.

And here we are compelled to stop, so says the foreman, for he cannot get any more in to night. What is left to be told we will tell hereafter. We will publish the list of premiums in next issue.

Tribute of Respect

At a meeting of Clinton Lodge, No. 124, at their Hall in Louisburg on the 8th inst., the following action was had relative to the death of our brother D. J. King.

WHEREAS the Supreme Architect of the Universe, has seen fit in His inscrutible wisdom, to remove from among us our esteemed brother, Benjamin J. King, therefore Resolved, 1st. That in the death of brother King this Lodge has lost a good and upright member; the cause of masonry a true and faithful supporter.

Resolved, 2nd. That while a remembrance of the many virtues, and of the noble and generous disposition of our deceased brother, causes us to shed the tear over his grave, yet we have great reason to be comforted, on account of the evidence that he gave of his implicit faith in the blessed Redeemer, which we humbly trust has carried him to the great Lodge on high, over which the great I AM presides; and that the close of his life was like the slow sinking of an unclouded summer's sun, which sets so beautifully in the West, that it is but the harbinger of a more glorious to-morrow.

3rd That we offer to his afflicted family our heartfelt sympathy in this, the hour of their great bereavement.

4th. That the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.

5th. That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the widow of the deceased, a copy be sent to the Raleigh SENTINEL, for publication, and a copy be placed among the archives of this Lodge.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Morton's friends say that he declines the mission to England.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct 21.—The Republican split has been consummated by the exclusion of those under Collector Murphy's leadership from the regular meetings. The Murphyites have held special meetings and resolved to support the candidates of the Independent Democrats for local offices, and request the interference of the Federal force, if necessary, on election day.—Tammany Hall was denounced for opposition to Congressional here. The regular meeting did nothing but discuss resolutions urging the State Central Committee to greater efforts. This is regarded by some as an insult to the Central Committee. The resolution was finally referred to the committee appointed to confer with outsiders. Finally the meeting adjourned without nominating.

The World's special from London says, that 50,000 people marched to the palace yard and organized a meeting in sympathy with the Republic of France. The speakers denounced King William. Allusions to Bright's apathy were read with cries of shame. The Gladstone government was bitterly reproached for abstention. The resolutions demand the abolition of pensions to German Princes and declare that sooner Kings and Queens had better be abolished.

The Herald's special from London says it is rumored that peace negotiations are progressing with Bazaine. The plan involves the enthronement of the Prince Imperial. Bazaine to be regent. Bazaine's army with the Sedan prisoners to march on Paris to enforce the stipulations.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 21.—The shock of the earthquake was sensible here, which caused great alarm.

A large assembly witnessed the practical operations of the California Steam Plow. The verdict was favorable to its adaptability to the West and South.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—The block bounded by Market, Mission, Front and Beale streets, was burned. Loss one million.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, Oct 21.—The Staats Duringer advertises six and a half million Thalers loan at 5 per cent. payable in six months. Only 250 citizens were killed at Strasburg. At Verdun as at Paris, the French are squandering ammunition by wild shots.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—Specie has decreased £326,000 sterling.

It is stated that the United States Government has ordered Burnside, Sheridan and Forsyth to return immediately. The Gazette De Lopes which makes the statement says that owing to the suggestions of these gentlemen, Washburn has been so negligent that he has been compelled to demand reparation for frequent arrests of Americans as spies.

FLORENCE, Oct. 21.—Mazzini has been ordered to remain at Leghorn.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Flour shade firmer; Wheat 1 cent better; Corn quiet and unchanged; Pork dull; Lard quiet; Cotton quiet and firm, Uplands 16, Orleans 16½, sales 1200 bales; Spirits Turpentine a shade easier at 45; Rosin quiet and firmer; Sterling heavy. Money 5 to 6; Sterling long 8½, short 9½; Gold 11½; Cts 13

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000 000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of help of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes, when the claim is due, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $1,800,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and Proprietary Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December 1, 1869, was $51,021,141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as in the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $18,000 000 greater than any other company.

We have ever offered to the wholesale or retail trade. We have narrowed down our profits to meet the growing competition, and respectfully solicit an examination of our stock by parties desiring to purchase goods by the package or at retail.

We pride ourselves in filling orders for our friends, as low as if they were buying in person, and our customers can rely upon having their orders filled with the best goods at the lowest market rates.

NOTICE TO CAPITALISTS.

I SHALL Proceed to sell to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in the Town of Louisburg, on the 1st Monday in November next, it being the 7th day of the month, some Twenty or Twenty-five Thousand Acres of valuable Land, among which is the well known Portis Gold Mine, lying in Franklin county on the waters of Fishing and Shocco Creeks, containing nine hundred thirty-three and one-third (933⅓) acres together with all the Machinery and appurtenances.

Also all the chattle property. This property is so well known that any particular description is deemed unnecessary. The entire tract is rich in Gold, and all the difficulty is a full supply of water. We are informed that an Independent Water Company is now surveying a ditch from Sandy Creek, to supply this and other Mines in the neighborhood with water. When this is done and it will be accomplished in a few weeks, this property will be immensely valuable. The property will be sold for cash and unless parties from a distance come in competition, it will not be greatly sacrificed.

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000 000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 120,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press." I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pure upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H FOGUE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 6th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON-FORFEITABLE WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring Dividens annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any Company doing business in this State. No "Definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869 "in excess of Cash surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several hundred policy-holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Definite Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's Charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
